Chase ends with driver running

By Debbie Dennie, Editor

Pendleton County Sheriff Craig Peoples recovered items for manufacturing methamphetamine from suspects he chased last week.

Sheriff Peoples was en route in his vehicle on September 24 headed south of Falmouth on US 27 when he spotted a vehicle that he was looking for involving drug charges. Peoples turned around and got in behind the vehicle. The pickup truck headed north, sped up and eventually led Peoples to Elm Street where the truck went between two houses and finally stopped in a parking lot, where two suspects fled on foot.

Brandon McDowell, 30, of Falmouth, was operating the 1983 Ford pickup truck. "McDowell fled on foot," said Peoples. Chief Deputy Todd Dennie followed him on foot. "Eventually McDowell dropped a bag he had been carrying filled with items to manufacture methamphetamine," said Peoples.

Arthur Courtney, 35, of Falmouth, a passenger in the truck apparently bailed out of the vehicle and received scrapes on his body from the roadway. Sheriff Peoples said, "Courtney had just shot up with heroin and overdosed."

Peoples said that the case is still under investigation and charges are pending.

Sheriff deputies helping with chase were Chief Deputy Todd Dennie and deputies Brian Locknane, Cody Fasse, and Falmouth Police Captain Roger Nowakowski.

Owners of the new Primitive Blessings Damian and Mandy Kindle ready to greet each customer with a smile, a warm inviting atmosphere and a unique item for any occasion.

Primitive Blessings opens up in downtown Falmouth

Primitive Blessings, at 105 W. Shelby Street, in downtown Falmouth, held its grand opening on Saturday, September 27. Owners, Damian and Mandy Kindle, were on hand to warmly greet each visitor personally. A custom they intend to continue every day.

"We like that small town feel and want our customers to feel special and to feel welcome," says Damian.

A Grant County native, Damian is the youth pastor at Harvest Community Church where he serves with his wife at his side. He says he recalls how it felt going into Figgins Grocery at Berlin when he came to live in Bracken County with his new bride. "You would go in and the people greeted you warmly and made you feel welcome. I want that here at our store. We really want to get to know our customers."

Inside the Kindle's cozy shop, there's a tantalizing aroma that makes one feel they've turned back time and are in grandma's kitchen again. Seeing some of the primitive creations will certainly transfer one to a more restive era. Whether you're looking for an old fashion outhouse or a colorful fall decoration for the yard or porch a shopper won't be disappointed in the decorative arts found there. Primitive Blessing is a unique shop with none of its kind in or near the Pendleton County area. Along taken in. If this trend continues, she said, it would become a matter of concern. Federal funding for school districts was decreasing, said Keene, and it would continue to do so for the next eight years. CPA Keene also said that she had recommended that all her districts take the 4% tax increase each year just to keep up with rising costs and falling income.

Other business conducted by the Pendleton County Board of Education in the September 18, 2014 meeting:

Southern Elementary Counselor Sherry Wirth addressed the Board of Education regarding the NKCES Elementary and Secondary School Counseling Grant. Counselor Wirth said that funding from the grant provided students with training that increased their coping skills pertaining to the learning process. They were taught how to lessen anxiety, how to control anger, how to manage time, how to study and how to maintain a positive attitude through self-talk.

Southern Elementary Principal Laura Pugh discussed a student enrichment program that allowed Southern 4th and 5th graders to spend the last 30 minutes of each day focused on an educational activity that they enjoyed. (Examples are the Southern Art Club and the Southern Dance Club). All students are guaranteed this opportunity for at least three out of the five school days. Principal Pugh said that teachers also used this time to provide children with individualized instruction in small group settings.

Director of Curriculum/Assessment-Secondary Tony Dietrich addressed the Board regarding the Spring 2014 ACT scores. Dietrich said that the district had met all the state averages and that the scores were up slightly over 2013. He discussed the improvement of Pendleton County student ACT scores and what was being done to achieve that goal.

Attorney J.D. Fleming addressed the Board and requested that his clients be allowed to send their grandchildren to Grant County Schools because they live very near Grant County and it would be more convenient. Superintendent Strong said that it was not allowed by school policy, but that the issue could be scheduled for further discussion in the Board's October meeting, if the Board would like to address it further.

The 2014-2014 Audit Report was approved.

The Board approved a motion that gave Superintendent Strong permission to begin the process of seeking an executive director for the Kentucky Association of School Superintendents.

The Board approved a Prom Contract that authorized the Pendleton County High School Class of 2015 to hold its May 2 dance at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington.

The Pendleton County Board of Education entered a closed session in order to discuss the possible purchase of real property. When the lawmakers returned to an open forum no action was taken.

OPINION

"In the time of darkest defeat, victory may be nearest."

~ William McKinley

Freedom or disaster?

The following was written on November 28, 2003, and appeared in The Falmouth Outlook. Revised slightly, I offer it as a bench mark piece to gauge how fast our society is changing and the possible and probably conflict with other cultures.

The speaker for Rotary, Superintendent Patrick Clore, had just given a stimulating program, reciting programs for which the public schools were responsible today, well over 50 as I recall, in contrast to reading, writing and arithmetic, when he first began his career as a teacher. Then, he pointed out that the most important factor in how well a student does in school is the involvement and support of his or her family; he closed by saying that the family unit has continued to disintegrate in American society.

As I arose to close the meeting, fresh in my mind was the decision of the Massachusetts Supreme Court that a civil union between same sex partners was legitimate and constitutional, and I connected the rise in gay rights to the breakdown of the American family. I was leading the parade of condemnation until an attorney who was present, protested forcefully the thesis of my argument, pointing out that there are multiple causes of the breakdown of the American family and that the traditional family was already in serious trouble before the advent of gay rights.

Surprised by this unexpected challenge, I knew she was right and staggering intellectually from this hard right hand to the jaw, I stammered something about, "Have you ever heard a hen crow?" And I hung on the ropes and prayed for the bell. In this case a diplomatic member rang the bell by shifting our discussion to a less volatile subject.

The respite allowed some oxygen to my brain---it takes longer than it used to---and I said something about a nation that does not know history is doomed to repeat it, and I cited Will Durant in his classic, Caesar and Christ, who documented that the Roman Empire became so corrupt, morally, in its latter stages, that it deported homosexuals and arrested prostitutes and welcomed Christianity for its emphasis on family and morals; making it the state religion. Christianity survived but not the Roman Empire for its moral fabric had become so rotten, its discipline so eroded, its will so dissipated that it collapsed from within, just as Khrushchev had predicted for the United States. Although Khrushchev and communism are mitigated, his prediction is eerily ominous as our collective morals, discipline and will, appear to be teetering on the brink of an abyss.

Do you think we have gone too far? Not far enough, some say. Yesterday's unacceptable (divorce, premarital sex, abortion, homosexuality, group sex, domestic partnerships and soon, same sex marriages) are today's acceptable. Groups exist that promote adult-child sex. Expect an alliance of academics, theologians and Hollywood to water board this into our cultural consciousness, until it becomes commonplace. In pursuit of freedom we have embraced license and now licentiousness.

No one wants to be the bedroom police. However, it's this licentiousness connection to the American family that gives cause for concern, for the family is the great transmitter of culture such as what is right and wrong, attitudes, values, and patriotism.

I close with two anecdotes that illustrate what I think should be. Both of them were told by my Father, Cyrus Collins, while teaching me and others at the Elkatawa Grade School. He said that Abraham Lincoln walked three miles to pay a man three cents for a debt he had incurred. He was pilloried in the press, but was known to the masses as "Honest Abe."

Nathan Hale was captured by the British and sentenced to be hanged for spying. As they tightened the noose around his neck he said, "I regret that I have but one life to give for my country." My Father's lower lip began to quiver as he said, "I wish I could have died defending our nation!"

PS My editor-in-house, Janice, does not particularly like this article. She says that it is too much about sex and not enough about other causes concerning the decline of the American family! I can now see where she is probably right!

"Dropping Back In"

Dear Editor,

In conjunction with National Adult Education and Family Literacy, we want to share information about an important effort underway in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. It's reported that in Kentucky more than 75 thousand adults do not have a high school diploma or GED credential. Nearly one in five Americans lack a high school diploma and every year one million more students drop out.

KET has been selected by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB) to produce a documentary depicting the inspiring stories of Americans who quit school, but are "dropping back in" and achieving success. Dropping Back In, series of four, half-hour documentaries, premieres at 9/8 p.m., Monday, October 6 on KET and will broadcast on PBS member stations nationally.

Every community in Kentucky, and in America, faces the challenge of adult dropouts and the need to improve college and career readiness. Each of us can play a role in helping individuals continue their education and in making our communities and our state stronger.

Sincerely,

Mary Butler

The weather had been hot leading up to the date of our Rotary Golf Outing, almost to the point that we considered postponing, but the weather cooled to the high eighties and we were blessed.

Peoples Funeral Home rode the hot putting of Bill Ockerman and the long drives of Jonathon Peoples to the championship, ably assisted by Mason Monroe and Roger Lonaker. The Helping Hands Division winner was the Antrobus Team consisting of Eric Conrad, Tim Antrobus, Eddie Rarieck, and Rob Bertram.

The longest drive for women was won by Ms. Paula Spence and the longest drive for men was by J. Peoples, mentioned above.

Breaking into the winner's circle this year was Mr. Paul Hillenmeyer who had the longest putt. And a repeat winner for the closest to the pin was Mr. Ron Belshe.

This makes the 12th consecutive year that Falmouth Rotary has held this golf outing; all but the first one at the lovely Kincaid Lake Golf Course. Many Rotarians worked hard to make it successful. Licking Valley Oil and BB's Stores provided the drinks. The pictures of teams are courtesy of John Steele and Mike Flynn. And, we have a strong list of hole sponsors, many of whom contribute year after year and we are grateful for them and encourage patronage of their places of business.

Thanks to all who help our Club assist many worthy causes in Falmouth and Pendleton County as well as international programs such as the eradication of polio! An article will soon be forthcoming concerning Rotary International's War on Polio, a scourge that is close to being eradicated, thanks to the work of Rotary; the world's largest civic club. We are always interested in new members and covet your inquiry. Our president this year is Hiram Harville.

Chef Jeff speaks to PCHS seniors

The guest presenter to Mrs. Valentine's group of first block Pendleton County High School seniors on Thursday, September 4, was Jeff Arkenau, owner of Chef Jeff's Place in Falmouth.

Arkenau shared some of the many experiences in which his education and work history in the culinary arts has taken him. These include preparing an $85 hamburger made from a hand-massaged cattle in Japan, as well as what he called his least favorite dish, a partially formed chicken still in the egg, considered a delicacy in many eastern cultures.

The chef encouraged the students to try every dish at least once, and don't disqualify a dish based on one ingredient because it is the combination of ingredients is what brings the overall taste.

Jeff emphasized with the students how important it is to maintain a good attitude in the work you perform saying, "I love to cook. It's why I wake up every day at 3 a.m."

The students responded well with questions and interactions, and were challenge to consider the skills necessary to succeed in the food service/hospitality industry, which include knowing a great deal of math in order to accurately mix ingredients, schedule staff for peak hours, and calculate menu prices.

One example of problem solving in the restaurant is being able to adapt when line cooks call in or do not show. Jeff corrects this crisis by cross training his employees to do multiple tasks so that someone can fill-in in one's absence.

Chef Jeff's is open and serving comfort food 6 a.m. - 2 p.m., Monday through Thursday; 6 a.m. - 8 p.m., Friday and Saturday; and 9 a.m. - 1 p.m., Sunday.

GATES City Planning Program visits theater

By Roger McKinney, Reporter

Pendleton County High School freshman students who participated in the 2013-14 GATES City Planning Program made a presentation on June 13 to a panel consisting of Falmouth City Council members and a variety of individuals from the community. This group had worked with GATES teacher Michelle Lustenberg and former PCHS and current University of Cincinnati DAP program student Brett Price to look at community development.

The goal of the program was to introduce students to urban planning practices and identify potential improvements to areas in the community important to them. Students presented three ideas to the panel and participated in broader discussion regarding the ideas.

One of these ideas was to renovate the New Pastime Theater in Falmouth to create a source of entertainment and a positive impact in the community. Students proposed that the opening of this theatre could be the catalyst for future economic growth; coffee shops, dance studios, etc. on Shelby Street. The group also listed creating jobs for high school students another positive impact of opening the New Pastime Theatre.

The 2013-14 GATES City Planning group who are now sophomores received a special invitation to tour the inside of the Pastime Theater and discuss renovation ideas with new owner Sebastian Ernst. Ernst has bought the theatre and is in the process of full renovation. The opportunity meant a great deal to each student and they are fully ready to help support Ernst and this theater in any way they can.

We're all EARS!

Chapter 3

"You all sit a spell and I'll get Jack," Mr. Blackford said. When he came back, Mom, Dad, Chloe and I all looked at one another in amazement!

We expected Jack to walk out with Mr. B. (as he told us to call him). Instead, Mr. B. carried out a large cardboard box.

"I get it! It's Jack-in-the-Box!" I exclaimed, thrilled I got the joke. Everyone was chuckling when Mr. Blackford pulled out his pocketknife and carefully opened the box.

"This pocketknife was my great-granddaddy's. It's been passed down through the family. A whole heap of whittlin' has been done with this knife," Mr. B. explained as he cut the tape and opened the box. I was hoping he wouldn't cut Jack.

Inside were books, magazines and newspapers. I was confused and disappointed.

"This box contains the entire collection of Jack Tales," Mr. B. said as he began pulling out several books. Mom and Dad didn't look surprised, but Chloe and I sat there looking bumfuzzled! Mr. B. must have noticed.

"What's the matter little fellow? You didn't actually think Jack was in ..." Mr. B. said, his voice trailing off. "You thought ol' Jack was in the box didn't you?" Guilty as charged.

"I thought you said everyone in Appalachia knew and loved Jack," I reminded him.

"I did -- and we do," Mr. B. said. "You see, Jack Tales made their way into Appalachia by way of the immigrants that came from Scotland, Ireland and Germany."

"So Jack is actually from Europe?" Chloe asked.

"Not Europe, Chloe," I corrected my sister, "but from Scotland, Ireland or Germany!"

"Best I remember, those three countries are in Europe," Mr. B. said, causing all of us to giggle and me to apologize to my sister.

"Way back in the 18th century, folks from Europe started making their way into Appalachia up around the eastern Pennsylvania region," he said. "They kept settling in Appalachia. As Pennsylvania, Maryland and West Virginia filled up, settlers kept moving deeper and farther west. It was right about this time that a Virginia doctor named Thomas Walker made settlers aware of the Cumberland Gap. Then Daniel Boone and a team of frontiersmen blazed a trail through that Cumberland Gap, making it accessible for others to travel. The rest, as they say, is history. So, to answer your original question, lil' lady, our first settlers in Kentucky were European immigrants who settled in the Appalachia region of Kentucky. They were the first ones to tell the stories about Jack -- Jack Tales as we call them."

Mr. B. took a breath and continued: "Like other folk stories, Jack Tales have been passed down from generation to generation by word of mouth. My great-grandmommy told my grandmommy who told my mommy stories about ol' Jack. Since the stories were passed down through the years, each person's version was a little different than someone else's. I'm sure glad somebody started writing those Jack Tales down. Anyway, the stories were tweaked a bit to reflect life in Appalachia. So Jack started dealing with mountain life, coal mining, animals, poverty and other things the Appalachian folks dealt with. Seemed as if ol' Jack was always getting himself into a right smart amount of trouble, but in the end he always came out smellin' like a rose."

Chloe and I rifled through the books. We saw Jack in the Beanstalk, Jack the Giant Killer and even Jack Frost. Here I'd thought the stories I'd discovered were new. I couldn't believe they had such a long and important history.

Once we had looked through the Jack Tales, we wanted to see what was in the rest of the box. There were books on coal mining, basket weaving, a catalog of Kentucky-made brooms, and stacks and stacks of newspapers. Some were really old and some were current.

"Why do you have old newspapers, Mr. B.?" I asked. "Isn't the news old?"

"Well little fellow, there are stories I wanted to remember, a picture or two of kinfolk, some important basketball games my Cats won, the obituaries of some dear friends, and even some old favorite recipes. Take a look."

Mom, Dad, Chloe and I thumbed through the newspapers. I never realized reading old news could be so interesting. It was fun to see facts from years past, grocery store prices in the old advertisements, and what recipe won a ribbon at the county fair in 1941.

"Do any of you have this week's newspaper?" I asked. If reading old news was exciting, I could only imagine how thrilling current news would be! I read the comics, the weather forecast and the box scores of the high school basketball team. However, it was in Section C, page 1, column 2 where I read the headline that was written completely for me!

Governor's Scholars Program applications

Pendleton County High School has announced the school-wide competition for the 2015 Kentucky Governor's Scholars Program (GSP).

The Governor's Scholars Program is a stimulating, five-week, residential summer program for outstanding Kentucky students completing their junior year in high school. The host colleges for the summer of 2015 will be Bellarmine University in Louisville, Morehead State University, and Murray State University. Established in 1983, the popular program provides academic and personal growth in a challenging, non-traditional experience that balances a strong liberal arts program with a full co-curricular and residential life.

While not a scholarship program, many universities and colleges across the state recognize the significance of participation in this program and provide special scholarship opportunities to students who have completed the Governor's Scholars Program.

The Governor's Scholar Program competition is open to all juniors. It is highly competitive and involves a lengthy application process. The students are selected based on multiple criteria that include academic record, ACT, SAT or PSAT test scores, teacher recommendation, community leader recommendation, personal essay, and student resume that consists of activities as well as demonstrated leadership and service.

Pendleton County High School is eligible to nominate six juniors based on grade 11 enrollment standards set by GSP. These nominees will compete with over 1,900 students from across the state for approximately 1,050 spots on one of the three campuses.

School specific information for Pendleton County High School juniors is now available in the Guidance Office. For general program information, go to www.gsp-ky.gov.

To be considered for school nomination, applicants must return completed applications to the Pendleton County High School Counseling Office on or before 4 p.m., Tuesday, October 28, 2014.

Parent Night, Sept. 30

Northern Elementary and Phillip Sharp Middle School Counseling Programs and the North FRYSC will present Parent Night: "Understanding Your Child's Behavior" from 6-8 p.m., Sept. 30, in the library at Phillip Sharp Middle School.

This is part of the Parent Success Skills Program that is designed for parents helping students develop academic, social, and self-management skills that they will need to succeed at all ages. This is a two-part event. The second part will be held on Nov. 11.

There will be Parent Success Skills activities, free refreshments, and chances to win door prizes!

Register in advance by calling 859-472-5518 to assist in the planning of refreshments.

Newport prevails in battle of the Wildcats

By Steven Peed, Reporter

The Pendleton County Wildcats made the trip up U.S. 27 on Friday, September 26 to face Newport. The hosts used their size and athleticism to build a large first quarter lead and cruise to a 62-13 victory. Newport improves to 2-3 on the season with the win, while Pendleton falls to 2-4.

"We knew tonight's game would be tough for us, with trying to handle their combination of speed and size at the running back position," noted coach Brown. "Their front line was impressive and kept us on our heels all night."

A first quarter touchdown catch was all the points Pendleton could muster in the first half, as the teams went to the break with Newport leading 56-7.

With the running clock rule in affect, there were few opportunities to put points on the board in the second half.

The highlight of the game, and possibly the season so far was the impressive 99 yard interception return for a touchdown by senior Hunter Lea. Lea was nominated for Fox 19's Play of the Week, and would appreciate anyone who can go online and vote!

Newport tacked on a late score to make the final score 62-13.

"I was proud of all our guys for not quitting, even when the game was out of reach," said Brown. "We know we have things to work on, and will get back at it and prepare for Nicholas County this upcoming Friday."

The Bluejackets opened their season with a win over Bracken County, but has since dropped four straight contests to come into this week's game at 1-4.

"We played Nicholas last year and had some success doing a few things, so we'll stick with what worked for us then."

The kickoff for the game in Carlisle is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. next Friday evening.

Ladycat Youth Volleyball sign-ups underway

Pendleton County Recreation is always looking to offer more opportunities for the PC youth to participate, be active and learn. With that mission in mind, the Ladycat Volleyball Youth League will start this October and run through the Monday before Thanksgiving.

This being the first year of youth volleyball, the setting will be more instructional and less competitive as the young Ladycats learn.

Each young lady will receive a PC Volleyball shirt and a youth volleyball to keep and practice with their parents at home.

Registration forms are being distributed at each of the elementary schools as well as Sharp Middle School but also can be downloaded at <http://pendletoncounty.ky.gov> and clicking on Recreation/Sports. Forms should be returned by mail or can be dropped off between the hours of 5-9 p.m. at the Rec Office.

The program goal is for a 2nd/3rd grade league that will practice on Tuesday nights from 6:30-8 p.m. at the PCHS auxiliary gym as well as Saturday mornings from 9:30-11 a.m.

There will also be a 4th-6th grade league that will practice on Thursday nights from 6:30-8 at the PCHS auxiliary gym as well as Saturday mornings from 9:30-11 a.m. Only 6th graders that were not on the Sharp Volleyball traveling team are eligible.

Cross Country runs at Walton

After running at the KHSAA State Meet as a sophomore, Montgomery Franxman missed out on the meet his junior season. Now a senior, he seems determined to make one more trip to the Kentucky Horse Park for the state cross country meet as he has been leading the Wildcats Cross Country team throughout the season.

The meet in Walton was no different as he finished 24th to lead Pendleton.

Teammate Walker Lea who made his first state appearance last year as a junior, was just six seconds behind finishing in 26th place.

Other Wildcats running were Caleb Vanorio, Kenton Hornbeck, Joshua Brown, Ian West, and Samuel Peoples who combined to give PC a 7th place team finish.

On the Ladycat side, the team finished in 8th place with Shelby Shaefer leading the way in 38th place. Alexis Tolbert followed her with Brooklyn McKinney and Xanthia Jensen finished right behind each other.

Amelia Franxman, Kylie Figgins, Madison Meyer and Hailey Wiggins also ran for the Ladycats.

Cats losing streak extends to five

By Sam McClanahan, Reporter

The Pendleton County Wildcats soccer dropped two games last week, falling to Harrison County 5-1 and Simon Kenton 6-3. The Cats have now lost a season-high five straight and currently hold a record of 4-12.

Mike DeWald scored the lone Wildcat goal in the loss to the Thorobreds last Tuesday, Sept. 23. The Cats offense put together its most effective output since Sept. 4 in scoring three times at home last Thursday, but it wasn't enough as the they were doubled-up by the visiting Pioneers.

As of press time, Pendleton County has allowed the most goals by any team in the 10th Region with 84. Calvary Christian is a distant second with 69 goals allowed.

The Cats travel to face Highlands (3-7-5) for an 8 p.m. showdown with the Bluebirds on Sept. 30. And then the team will venture north for a 5 p.m. match-up with Covington-Holy Cross on October 1.

The Future Wildcats Basketball League ready to tip-off

The Future Wildcat Basketball Youth League will be held before Christmas this year and registration forms have been distributed at the elementary schools as well as Sharp Middle School.

The program goal is for a K-2nd grade league and a 3rd-6th grade league. Only those players who are not on the Sharp Middle School traveling league are eligible.

Practices will be held throughout the week with games played on Sunday starting at 1:30 p.m. First games will start on November 2 and finish on December 21. Games will be played at PCHS in both gyms.

Registration forms can be downloaded at www.pendletoncounty.ky.gov and click on Recreation/Sports or picked up at the Recreation Department office within the PCHS Griffin Fitness Center. Forms should be returned by mail or can be dropped off between the hours of 5-9 p.m. at the Rec Office.

Questions can be sent to Recreation Director, Keith.Smith@pendleton.kyschools.us, Future Wildcats Youth Basketball Director, Nathan Peoples at npeoples@nkywater.org or call PC Recreation at 859-654-5800.

Ladycats improve season record to 9-4

By Cindy Fitzpatrick, Reporter

The Pendleton County Ladycats soccer team picked up two more wins on the road this week. The Cats traveled to Maysville on Monday, September 22 to battle with the Lady Royals. Though the game started slow for the Ladycats, they finished strong with a final score of 6-1. Katie Boggs got the scoring started with an assist from Amber Blackaby. Makayla Bishop scored two goals off assists by McKayla Manor and Madison Wirth. Alex Blackaby put a well placed free kick into the 18 and Erin Fitzpatrick finished nicely with a header to the back of the goal. And the scoring was finished off by Kendall Carr and Destiny Montoure who both scored their first varsity goals of the season.

Coach Myers is happy with the fact that 13 of her 16 varsity players have scored goals this season and that her defense, consisting of Erin Fitzpatrick, Madison Wirth, Alex Blackaby, McKayla Manor, and Hailey Bishop, and combined goalkeeping efforts of Madison Wyatt and Destiny Montoure, have only give up one goal in the past five games.

The Cats also traveled to Covington to take on Covington Latin on their Senior Alex Blackaby clearing the ball in the defensive end of the field with Erin Fitzpatrick in the background.

Night. Another shutout is in the books for Madison Wyatt and Ladycats win 4-0. Scoring for the Cats in Covington: Makayla Bishop had two goals with assists from Sidney Dietrich, Katie Boggs scored one goal with an assist by Makayla Bishop, and Hailey Bishop bent a ball perfectly into the goal from her corner kick in the second half of the game.

The Ladycats played district rivals, the Harrison County Fillies on Monday, September 29 with results unavailable at press time.

Come out and support the Ladycats soccer team this week as they play three more home games: Wednesday, October 1 - Sharp Middle School at 7 p.m. versus Region 10 powerhouse Campbell County; Thursday, October 2 - Southern Elementary field at 6:30 p.m. versus Holy Cross; and Saturday, October 4 - Sharp Middle School at 7:30 p.m. versus Boone County.

Wildcat Golf seeking state tournament appearance

Coach Ron Stinson's Wildcat Golf program has made several state tournament appearances over the past years and they are looking to add another to his coaching resume on Tuesday, Sept. 30 at Eagle Creek Country Club.

Trey Roseberry, Ian Tackett, Austin Schneider, Zack Bowen and Cameron Auchter will represent Pendleton County in the regional tournament with each looking to make their first appearance at state.

Trey Roseberry has the best chances as he has competed in several junior golf tournaments throughout the summer and has shown the game to make a run at a state tournament appearance.

Austin has played most of the season as the #2 golfer and medaled but has been hampered by a back issue. He will have to battle both it and the tough Eagle Creek course.

Ian and Cameron have both shown flashes of ability to shoot low and put themselves into contention. Key will be consistency of those flashes through 18 holes.

Zack is getting his first region tournament experience that will help him in future regional tournament appearances.

Volleyball team beats Newport

In a battle of the Ladycats, Pendleton County Volleyball traveled north and came back with a victory over the Newport Ladycats 25-15, 25-21 last Monday, Sept. 22 that brought their record to 5-7 for the season.

Late in the week, they dropped two matches to Bellevue and district foe Robertson County.

Bellevue took the first match decisively but Coach Buck indicated her team showed up in the second match and battled hard but fell 28-26 to lose 2-0.

Against a tough district foe, Pendleton fell 2-0 to Robertson County, 25-16 and 25-22.

Darryl Roberts Softball Tourney

Ladycat Golf ready for state

The final results of the Region 8 Girls Golf tournament were not available till after deadlines, but the Ladycat Golf team was looking to continue the 7-year streak of sending a team or an individual to Bowling Green to compete in the state tournament.

Both Mackenzie Moore (2013) and Holley Hart (2012) is part of that streak and both are in a good spot to gain one of the state tournament spots.

"If we play well, we have a chance for two or even three individuals to qualify for state," coach Timmy Cooper commented on his team's chances to continue the state tournament streak.

Mackenzie had medaled three times during the season in Pendleton matches and Holley shot an 18-hole round in the 70's at the beginning of the season. Both have a tremendous amount of experience on the Maysville Country Club course.

Morgan Cobb has thrown her name in the mix for her first state tournament appearance medaling in one of the last matches of the season.

Eighth grader Shelby Johnson will be playing in her second regional tournament and 6th grader Brooke Cobb will be making her first appearance.

While Scott County, winners of five of six regional tournament team championships, and Mason County are the team favorites, George Rogers Clark poses the biggest threat to the Pendleton's state tournament hopes.

BERLIN BAPTIST
We invite all to come and worship with our family of believers. Sunday services begin with Sunday school at 10 a.m., morning worship at 11 a.m., and Sunday night services are held at 7 p.m., message by Brother Dan Black.

This past Sunday was a wonderful time in the Lord at Berlin Baptist Church. We were blessed to receive a message from our brother in Christ, Dr. David Smeltz. Dr. Smeltz's message was taken from Revelations titled, "What are you building your character on?"

October 4 we will hold a hymn sing with the Punches Family. Please join us for a wonderful time of singing praises to the Lord. Service begins at 7 p.m.

BLANKET CREEK
It's been awhile since we updated you on what has been going on at Blanket Creek Baptist Church. Since you heard from us last we have inducted Jim Wells and Doug Florer as Yokefellows and Carl Porter is a new deacon. Plans are being made to remodel our Sunday school rooms for easier access and to create more classes.

Our GA's have been hard at work. They have collected a huge amount of school supplies and donated them to Southern Elementary. They are now working on a clothes drive for Fairhaven Missions. On Sunday night they worked with Missions Friends and the youth group in making cookies to take to the firemen and policemen to show our appreciation for them and what they do to keep us safe.

The youth group has started practicing for their Christmas program and lots of children are needed. WMU is now taking up an offering for Eliza Broadus Home Missions and we also participate in helping Sunrise Children's Services. And last but not least, we have a wonderful pastor Brother Joe Hall who preaches from the heart what the Lord lays upon his heart.

As you can see we are very busy here. If you would like to serve the Lord with gladness we have plenty of ways for you to serve your Maker. Please join us 9:45 a.m., Sunday school, 11 a.m., worship and Sunday evenings at 7 p.m., for worship, youth group and GA's. Mission Friends meet in the morning service.

We added the family of Tammy Stewart to our extensive prayer list.

BUTLER METHODIST
The service on Sunday was a blessing. One blessing was having Reverend Mike Coppersmith from the Cynthiana UMC with us to sing some uplifting songs. Another blessing was the singing that the congregation sang together, great old hymns and some new ones too. And finally a stirring message from our pastor. It was a great Sunday to worship at Butler United Methodist Church.

The ladies have put together about eight dresses for the African children and cleaned the kitchen thoroughly. The men met and put together several food boxes from the pantry, but sorry to say our pantry is like Old Mother Hubbard's, almost bare.

World Communion Sunday will be celebrated October 5. The Gospel Sing with Ben Russell and the Majestic Sounds will be held here October 11. The six week archery ministry will begin October 18 and Laity Sunday will be October 19.

Come worship with us. God is good (all the time), all the time (God is good).

CHAPEL OF PRAISE
Sister Shelia Justice opened the morning service with the preliminaries and Sister Avalene Asbury opened in prayer.

Pastor Kevin's message was taken from the book of Nahum chapter one. The title of the message was, "The Judgements and Blessings of God."

The Prophet Nahum had a great burden for the people of the city of Nineveh, one hundred years after the Prophet Jonah held a great revival in the city of Nineveh, the people had turned from God and plunged into darkness.

They and their city were destroyed because they chose evil over good and the devil over God.

Had they continued to serve the Lord with their whole heart, they would have continued to receive the blessings of God.

Prayer concerns this week: Linda Jones, the Powell family and Edgar and Joyce Brock.

FALMOUTH BAPTIST
Brother Cohen delivered a powerful message this week. He reminded us that we were created to worship and celebrate the Lord Jesus Christ. We need to quit chasing worldly things and spend our time and effort pursuing a closer relationship with God. What would you give for your soul? Matthew 16:26 "What good will it be for a man if he gains the whole world, yet forfeits his soul? Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul?" This life is just the introduction to eternity. At the time of judgment, God will deliver the righteous and condemn the wicked. Our emphasis needs to be to live a life content with what we have and to strive to live a life pleasing to the Lord.

We were blessed to participate in the Community Block Party hosted on our parking lot. Thanks to everyone who made it a great day!

FALMOUTH WESLEYAN
Christians need to celebrate. There was a time when we were surrounded by hopelessness and were being destroyed by the enemies poison. Nothing we could do would change our condition.

The Israelites were in the wilderness and were attacked by "fiery serpents." They were bitten and were dying from the poison. They couldn't do a thing to save themselves. But God had Moses make a snake of bronze and lift it up on a pole. All who looked upon it were healed of the poison. Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, Christ was lifted up that everyone who looks upon Him will be healed of the enemy's poison, and have eternal life. We have looked upon Him and have been healed! We need to keep our eyes on the cross to continue being healed.

Celebrate with us! Sunday 11 a.m., and 6 p.m., Wednesday 6:30 p.m., and Thursday 7 p.m.

FIRST BAPTIST
On this beautiful fall morning, we were blessed with two music specials. The first was by Jeremy Moore with the second by Mike Whaley. Our church is blessed with so much talent.

Bro. Harry's message, "Why Are We Afraid," was taken from Matthew. We live in a lost and dying world, but God is always with us. We need to step out on faith. Don't be afraid or ashamed to share God's word. If someone asks you to pray, don't be afraid, God will put the words in your mouth. Don't worry about things. We should just worry about where we will go when our life is over.

Pray for those seeking faith, love, hope, healing and peace. Remember our military, our community and our country in your prayers, also.

"Pray about everything - worry about nothing."

HARVEST COMMUNITY
Brother Damian's morning message was titled, "Accepting Failures and Shortcomings." Lessons we learn from our failures should make us better able to handle the same situation the second time around. If we fail, we must refocus on God. Because God is eager to give us cleansing, forgiveness and strength, the only way to lose is to give up.

The power of prayer has been shown this week as Elstun Bobb has returned home after suffering from a stroke. He was told that he would not be able to sit in a recliner again or walk. Today Elstun is walking and enjoying his recliner at home! Praise God! We all look forward to Elstun and Jessie returning to church soon.

Prayer concerns: Darl

Ashcraft, Bridgette Hart, Pat Danahe, Steve Faulkner, Jeff Dicken, Peggy Harney, Jed Deters, Rusty Robbins, Terry Maxedon and the family of Lisa Powell.

MORGAN CHRISTIAN
Many from Morgan attended the beautiful wedding ceremony of Brandi Moreland and Alex Carson Saturday, September 20. The wedding and reception took place at Rolling Ridge farm.

April Lecrone gave the message, "Complaining," Sunday morning. She talked about Moses leading the Israelites out of bondage and the miracles God did for them, yet they complained about everything. We all do a lot of complaining. Much of the time we are not even aware of what we are doing. She had the young children come up, asked them a question with some of the complaints they have. They each gave thanks to God for what they had instead of being unhappy for what was bothering them or what they did not have. We need to be thankful for our many blessings.

Debbie Fultz, Charles Whaley, Earl West and Lois Work served as deacons.

"It's okay to visit memory lane, just don't live there."

MR. MORIAH
Brother Breeden shared from John 3: 1-12. Nicodemus saw the Presence and the Power of Jesus. He learned that "except ye be born again, you cannot see the Kingdom of God." When you are born again, you will experience a character change. The change isn't instant but happens over time as you grow in your knowledge of Jesus by reading the word. We should each desire an encounter with Christ each day to continue the change in us. Ephesians 5:26 tells us He will cleanse us with the washing of water by the word. As you change, your spirit will guide you to the word of God.

Our prayer list includes Kathy Jackson, Tom Biddle, Erica Michaels, our Armed Forces, those fighting addiction, Christians around the world and many others. Join us for Sunday school at 10 a.m., and service at 10:45 a.m., Hwy 17.

NEW ZION
Come join us for worship and Christian fellowship. Sunday school begins at 10 a.m., morning worship is at 11 a.m., and evening worship starts at 6:30 p.m. The CrossFire Crew and Bible study meet on Wednesdays at 6 p.m.

Upcoming opportunities: The Hot Dog Roast will be on October 4 at 7 p.m. At 12:30 p.m., October 12 there will be a business meeting.

I Thessalonians 5:17- "Pray without ceasing."

Please remember in prayer Janet Bishop, Johnny Cochran, John and Terri Thomas, K.W. Ramsey, Amy Wilson, Robert Lesko, Alice Thomas, Ann Branham, Roy Keith, Michelle Perkins and the Jefferson, Elrod, Stewart and Rice families. Also remember to pray for our country and its leaders.

OAKLAND CHRISTIAN
God is a God of grace, which means He is a God who never gives up on you. Isn't that wonderful to know!

Wool Fest is fast approaching, October 3-5. Come to our "bean" booth! We will have other items too. Remember the Punches Family in concert at the Wool Fest.

Prayer concerns are Pat Ray, Bonnie Logan (back), Janice Wolfe, Bobby House (knee surgery), Pat Osborne, Gretta Bishop, Lowell Thomas, David Collier, Philip Connell, Terry Maxedon, Barbara Singer, shut-ins, cancer issues, our armed forces and our leaders. Our sympathy goes to the loved ones of Keith Fardo and Lisa Baker Powell.

PLEASANT RIDGE
Happy belated 90th Birthday Geneva Bowen. No matter how she feels, Geneva always finds it in her heart to be in God's house on Sunday.

Happy birthday Patty Shay.

Brother Rick's message explained why we need the 10 Commandments in our lives. Exodus 20:1-17.

People don't like to be commanded. We live in a time when right is wrong and wrong is right. Believing in moral absolutes is how you should live your life. Satan is real and will do anything to keep you away from God. Why did God give us these laws? To reveal His glory and holiness. Opens our eyes to see if we have a need for Jesus. When we have Jesus in our lives we are compelled to obey the laws.

The gospel preached clearly will be felt in your life and heart. If you remember two things, love God and love your neighbor, you will never break the commandments.

Sunday night Bible study will be from various books of the Bible on Christian belief.

PINE GROVE
Autumn is knocking on our door as we watch the nights lengthen and the days become shorter. That means it's time to make plans for fall activities.

Carol opened the service with reading from Psalms 63 and continued into Ecclesiastes and the teachings of Jeremiah. His writings seemed to say why? Or what's the use? To him, nothing was to be gained under the sun.

Melanie contributed to the service with her special music, "Pass It On." It hasn't been a pleasure to use our old hymnals singing our old favorites such as "Ere You Left Your Room This Morning."

With the beginning of fall, it's time to prepare our bazaar items which the proceeds will be used in our mission projects. October 8 we will have a work day at the home of Hilda Wright.

It was a pleasure to take part in the Community Block Party on Fourth Street in Falmouth. This was an endeavor to make Pendleton County drug free.

Remember our Dream Kids program meets the second Wednesday from 4-6 p.m.

TRINITY
Autumn has arrived and with it God's masterpiece is flowing throughout our county with the changing of leaves, fall mums, pumpkins, ect. This gets everyone ready for the Wool Fest, Halloween and a variety of fall fun.

Sunday, Joe presented our special music with the encouragement of Brother Ron. He sang a beautiful song, "Overcome."

The morning message came from John 1:14-18. Christ became the perfect teacher and example when He became human. He was the perfect sacrifice to save all of us.

Game night is in full swing for the last Friday night of each month. We are gathering candy donations for the Trunk or Treat to be held at the church.

Thanksgiving will be here soon. Start praying that God will prepare everyone with the right frame of mind and heart to work as an instrument during this special time. The Back-Up Plan will start the month of October, starting off with collecting cans of cranberry sauce, gravy and boxes of stuffing.

TURNER RIDGE
Sunday, September 21 Brother Dale presented Micah Gregg with his first grade Bible, we pray it is a great year for him.

Brother Dale led the children's message "It's Not Fair," he started by telling them that when he was little everyone he was in school with watched Walt Disney on Sunday nights, but his parents made him go to church. At the time he didn't think it was fair at all that he had to go to church while all his friends were home watching tv. But as he grew up he was glad for the time he had spent at church learning scripture verses, he still remembered them.

Chloe Baumgartner read scripture, Acts 26:15-18 and then Shonda Justus brought special music.

Brother Dale's sermon, "Gifts of the Spirit: The Work of Ministry," was a good message letting us know that we are equipped to do God's work. "To equip His people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up." Ephesians 4:12.

Please lift someone in prayer and remember the families that have lost loved ones.

We have audited the accompanying statement of revenues, expenditures, and excess fees - regulatory basis of the County Sheriff of Pendleton County, Kentucky, for the year ended December 31, 2013, and the related notes to the financial statement.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statement

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement in accordance with accounting practices prescribed or permitted by the laws of Kentucky to demonstrate compliance with the Commonwealth of Kentucky's regulatory basis of accounting as described in Note 1. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statement based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, and the Audit Guide for County Fee Officials issued by the Auditor of Public Accounts, Commonwealth of Kentucky. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions.

Basis for Adverse Opinion on U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles

As described in Note 1 of the financial statement, the financial statement is prepared by the County Sheriff on the basis of the accounting practices prescribed or permitted by the laws of Kentucky to demonstrate compliance with the Commonwealth of Kentucky's regulatory basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The effects on the financial statement of the variances between the regulatory basis of accounting described in Note 1 and accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, although not reasonably determinable, are presumed to be material.

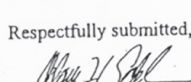

Adverse Opinion on U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles

In our opinion, because of the significance of the matter discussed in the Basis for Adverse Opinion on U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles paragraph, the financial statement referred to above does not present fairly, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, the financial position of each fund of the County Sheriff, as of December 31, 2013, or changes in financial position or cash flows thereof for the year then ended.

Opinion on Regulatory Basis of Accounting

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the revenues, expenditures, and excess fees of the County Sheriff for the year ended December 31, 2013, in accordance with the basis of accounting practices prescribed or permitted by the Commonwealth of Kentucky as described in Note 1.

Respectfully submitted,

Adam H. Edelen
Auditor of Public Accounts

Weed control for pastures

As warm-season plants in the pasture naturally begin to die back, cool-season weeds will sprout: chickweed, henbit and purple deadnettle will fill the voids. Other weeds such as buttercup and musk thistle will likely be more prevalent in the next spring.

One option to tackle weed problems is to apply broadleaf pasture herbicides in mid to late fall or early next spring. However, herbicides alone may not be the best solution to revitalize pastures for the next grazing season.

The first step to determining your weed management options is to do a critical evaluation of pasture fields. Not only do you need to take an inventory of the current weeds present, but you also need to scout the field to look for any developing weed problems in their seedling growth stages. Identify areas of the field with potential problems such as musk or other biennial thistles, poisonous hemlock, buttercup and common chickweed. Also, you should assess the growth of desirable forage grasses and legumes.

Your primary question then becomes—does the existing stand of desirable forages appear adequate and potentially competitive enough against any emerging weed problems? If the forage stand is acceptable and weed pressure is light, the best course of action likely is to follow routine pasture management practices. However, if you see developing weed problems, you may want to take action to begin correcting the problem. In some cases, you may have no good solutions to correct all your weed problems. Here are some points to consider as you make those decisions.

After you evaluate the pasture, you must decide whether to drill or overseed more forages into existing pasture to improve the stand of desirable forage grasses or to spray herbicides to control emerging broadleaf weeds. You will not be able to do both at the same time since most pasture herbicides have the potential to injure newly emerging forage

Become energy aware

October is National Energy Awareness Month. This is an annual national effort to underscore energy's importance to our prosperity, security and environment.

Energy efficiency means performing the same job using less energy. New technologies and processes make this possible. Energy efficiency is the fastest and cheapest solution for reducing energy use, saving money and preventing greenhouse gas emissions.

The energy used for heating and cooling a home is weather dependent. Preparing your home for the heating season is an annual event. Tune up your heating system for the winter and check weather-stripping and caulking too. You can learn if your home is using more energy compared to a similar home by completing an online home energy self-assessment. A home that has a high energy use might benefit from energy upgrades like adding insulation or sealing air leaks.

Your behaviors determine your home's base load energy use. You can reduce your energy use and lower your energy costs by changing your behaviors. Two simple changes to make are turning off lights when you leave a room and lowering the thermostat on your water heater to 120

4-H country ham auction

Pendleton County hosted its 4th Annual Pendleton County 4-H Country Ham Auction on September 12, 2014. There were twelve 4-Hers that participated in the 4-H country ham project for 2014. Each participant received two hams in January and was responsible for rubbing the cure mix on the hams and getting them hung up. They cleaned their hams in May and rehung them in clean socks until August. They met again in August to practice delivering a speech that they were required to prepare for the Kentucky State Fair 4-H Country Ham speech competition. One ham from each participant also went to the state fair to be judged. The participants then cleaned their remaining ham for the country ham auction in September. The auction was extremely successful thanks to all of the buyers and add-ons! Wyatt's SuperValu prepared a delicious country ham dinner for all 4-H ham participants, their families, and potential buyers. The hams averaged 397 dollars including both the buyer's purchase and add-ons! Thank you to Caldwell Cattle Company for the purchase of McKenzie McCoy's ham, Kenneth and Bonnie Kirsch for the purchase of Jordan

On-farm investment opportunities now available for Pendleton

The Kentucky Agricultural Development Board, chaired by Gov. Steve Beshear, recently awarded 194,602 dollars in Pendleton County Agricultural Development Funds for a County Agricultural Investment Program (CAIP). The Pendleton County Agricultural Diversification Association Inc. submitted a proposal to the Pendleton County Agricultural Development Council and the Kentucky Agricultural Development Board to provide cost-share incentives to area farmers.

"To remain viable, our farmers must continue adapting to an evolving world and the technological advances it is producing," said Gov. Beshear. "I am committed to giving our farmers the tools and resources they need to remain competitive and continue Kentucky's strong farming tradition. The KADF County Agricultural Investment Program provides incentives for farmers to try new techniques and technologies to keep their operations competitive and continue this tradition."

CAIP is designed to provide farmers with incentives to allow them to improve and diversify their current production practices. CAIP combines what were previously known as county model cost-share programs into one, where each model program becomes an investment area.

"These funds provide new agricultural opportunities to farmers who once depended on tobacco as their main crop. Low interest loans, grants and incentives subsidized by the KY Agricultural Development Fund allow our agriculture industry to expand into new areas and product diversification," said Senate President Pro Tem Katie Stine, of Southgate. "In 2012-2013 County Agriculture Investment Program (CAIP) was able to fund 100 projects for 66 different producers in Pendleton County. I encourage our agriculture community to take advantage of the opportunities available through the CAIP."

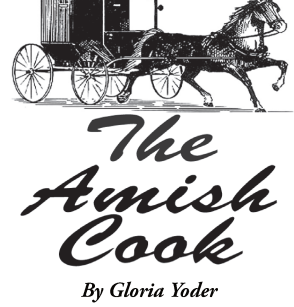

"I am thankful for the commitment of the Agricultural Development Board, the county council and the Pendleton County Agricultural Diversification Association when it comes to helping our local farm families," said Rep. Tom McKee of Cynthia. "I am proud to support the use of tobacco settlement dollars for programs like this, because they have done so much for agriculture."

CAIP covers a wide variety of agricultural enterprises in its 10 investment areas, including commercial production of aquaculture; bees and honey; equine; forage; beef and dairy cattle; goats and sheep; horticulture; poultry; swine; and timber, as well as energy efficiency and production; farm infrastructure and water enhancement; marketing; and value-added production.

Applications will be available at the county extension office Monday - Friday, until 3:30 p.m. Completed applications are due back to the extension office by 3:30 p.m., Friday, October 3.

For more information about the sign-up period and the complete guidelines for this program in Pendleton County, contact Rennie Corbin with the extension service at 859-654-3395 ext. 10 or sharon.corbin@uky.edu ready to relax a bit so we each took a refreshing nap.

Next I tackled a closet that needed to be organized and cleaned. Organizing is something I thoroughly enjoy but unfortunately I don't always keep it that way. As I worked I started spinning my mind on what we could have for supper. Finally I decided on making fried rice and red beets. I chose to make blueberry and strawberry crisp with milk for dessert. My husband Daniel isn't especially fond of plain rice but is always delighted to see my fried rice. I'll include my recipe in case you are interested in trying it.

After supper we had been asked to baby-sit for several neighbor children while their parents attended a PTA (parent teacher association meeting). Caring for four extra children under the age of six kept our evening quite interesting and lively. After playing outside a while they came inside and I helped them play a game of Strawberryland and read several stories to them.

Perhaps it would be interesting for you to hear more about the PTA meeting? I mentioned with having a small, parochial school we find communication to be both needful and valuable. Every six weeks the teachers meet with the scholar's parents. They all gather at the schoolhouse for the evening. Since Julia will one day attend the school we were once invited to join in. I found it to be quite interesting and enjoyable. We all sat in a large circle and sang several songs followed by a brief devotional and prayer. Next, one of the board members presented some things in relation to the school that needed to be discussed and decided. Generally the presentation is followed by a discussion from the menfolk and teachers. The meeting is closed with a parting song and a prayer. Afterwards each set of parents is given the opportunity to personally meet with their children's teacher or teachers.

This is the fried rice recipe that I fixed us for supper. You can use any meat you wish, we like browned sausage, venison, or diced turkey. More veggies can be added. If using turkey or chicken you may want to add pineapple chunks. That will give it a sweet juicy twist. I hope you enjoy making this as much as I do!

FRIED RICE

- Ingredients:
- 8 ounces rice, cooked until tender
 - 1/2 pound meat of your choice
 - 1/2 pound bacon, fried or crumbled
 - 2 green peppers, sliced or diced
 - Chicken seasoning
 - Liquid smoke
 - Worcestershire Sauce
 - Salt and pepper to taste
 - Cheese of your choice
- Directions:
- In a 10-inch skillet sautee peppers and onions in bacon drippings. Extra butter may be added if desired. Add cooked rice, meat, and seasonings. Stir and fry together until hot. Top with cheese, place lid on top, heat on low until cheese is melted.

NOTICE

Please take notice that Duke Energy Kentucky, Inc. has applied to the Kentucky Public Service Commission for approval to revise its Demand Side Management (DSM) rate for electric service and gas service for residential and commercial customers and add new products for its DSM program available to customers. Duke Energy Kentucky's current monthly DSM rate for residential gas customers is $0.054918 per hundred cubic feet (ccf) and for non-residential gas customers is $0.000000 per hundred cubic feet. Duke Energy Kentucky's current monthly DSM rate for residential electric customers is $0.003062 per kilowatt-hour (kWh) and for non-residential customers is $0.001128 per kilowatt-hour for distribution service and $0.000848 per kilowatt-hour for transmission service.

Duke Energy Kentucky seeks approval to revise these rates as follows: Duke Energy Kentucky's monthly DSM rate for residential gas customers would increase to $0.055020 per hundred cubic feet and for non-residential gas customers would remain at $0.000000 per hundred cubic feet. Duke Energy Kentucky's monthly DSM rate for residential electric customers would increase to $0.003094 per kilowatt-hour and for non-residential customers would increase to $0.001249 per kilowatt-hour for distribution service and would remain at $0.000848 per kilowatt-hour for transmission service.

The rate contained in this notice is the rate proposed by Duke Energy Kentucky. However, the Public Service Commission may order a rate to be charged that differs from this proposed rate. Such action may result in a rate for consumers other than the rate in this notice. The foregoing rates reflect a proposed increase in electric revenues of approximately $329 thousand or 0.10% over current total electric revenues and an increase of $6 thousand or 0.01% over current gas revenues.

A typical residential gas customer using 70 ccf in a month will see an increase of $0.01 or 0.01%. A typical residential electric customer using 1000 kWh in a month will see an increase of $0.03 or 0.03%. A typical non-residential electric customer using 40 kilowatts and 14,000 kWh will see an increase of $01.69 or 0.13%. Non-residential gas customers and non-residential electric customers served at transmission voltage will see no change in their bills from this application.

Any corporation, association, body politic or person may by motion within thirty (30) days after publication or mailing of notice of the proposed rate changes, submit a written request to intervene to the Public Service Commission, 211 Sower Boulevard, P.O. Box 615, Frankfort, Kentucky 40602, and shall set forth the grounds for the request including the status and interest of the party. The intervention may be granted beyond the thirty (30) day period for good cause shown. Written comments regarding the proposed rate may be submitted to the Public Service Commission by mail or through the Public Service Commission's website. A copy of this application filed with the Public Service Commission is available for public inspection at Duke Energy Kentucky's office at 4580 Olympic Boulevard, Erlanger, Kentucky 41018 and on its website at <http://www.duke-energy.com>. This filing and any other related documents can be found on the Public Service Commission's website at <http://psc.ky.gov>.
